Price Forbes Welcomes New Recruits

Price Forbes welcomes three new staff members who have recently joined the company to strengthen both their Johannesburg and Stellenbosch teams. Rian Pauw has started as Customer Relationship Manager in Stellenbosch; Irene Corlett has joined as Client Relationship Manager in Johannesburg, together with Linda Smit who has been recruited as Claims Negotiator.

Rian is responsible for looking after a wide range of clients across various industries. Rian was born in Cape Town but went to high school in Pretoria before returning to the Cape to Stellenbosch. Here he shone in various hospitality, beverage and wine industries having worked for Ernie Els Wines, Cellar Door and most recently DGB and Brampton Wines. Rian's strength in building relationships and instilling trust, as well as his passion and experience working at companies such as DGB, brings great value to client relationships at Price Forbes.

Irene holds experience in the corporate reinsurance and corporate underwriting arena. She has obtained a solid skill set and experience performing in a wide array of broking and underwriting projects. She previously worked for Guy Carpenter Reinsurance Brokers in a reinsurance broking role and then moved on to corporate underwriting. Irene has recently joined Price Forbes to offer a variety of technical and servicing needs and ensure continued exceptional service level delivery whilst upholding strong client relationships between Price Forbes and our valued clients. Amongst her various qualifications, she has achieved her Licentiate through Milpark Business School.

Linda has worked in the Insurance Industry for a number of years in both personal and commercial lines. Linda worked previously at Alexander Forbes in 1991 for a few years before moving to Glenrand which was then taken over by Aon, where Linda worked for 13 years. She then moved to Marsh for three years before moving back to Price Forbes' Stellenbosch office on the commercial side. Linda's
